Arranging the Full Event ~ 10am-12:30pm, Saturday, June 2nd, 2012 $65

This class is a pen-to-paper planning session for the logistics of making a do-able timeline for the flower arranging part of your special event. How to plan what to do ahead of time, the week of, and the day before... organize all the details so you can be care-free to enjoy the beauty of your flower creativity for the event and beyond! The focus will be on practical planning, although there will be flower arranging tips and techniques throughout, centerpiece, large arrangement, and archway demos, demonstrations of how to use your flowers most effectively, and problem solving solutions before any problems occur! Be prepared to come to class with nervousness about doing your own flowers for your event, and leave the class with a complete plan and confident enthusiasm!

Personal Decor: Boutonnieres and Corsages and More! ~

Not your average pin-on for not your average people! This workshop will explore ways of turning boutonnieres, corsages and hair garlands into works of art! Hands-on practical techniques, creative ideas that are easy to master. By the end of class, you will be comfortable with making a variety of styles of boutonnieres and corsages, have plenty to bring home and enjoy, and have the skills to make other personal decor as well.

10am-12:30pm, Saturday, July 7th, 2012 $55

Making Hand-held Bouquets ~ 10am-12:30pm, Saturday, August 4th, 2012 $75

This workshop offers a hands-on flower tutorial on designing hand-held bouquets. From flower choice to preparation to flower care to ribbon tying to transport, this workshop offers the ins and outs of making gorgeous hand-held bouquets that will wow your bridal party and your guests, and will make your photos alive with beauty forever. You will leave the workshop with your own hand-held bouquet and confidence that you CAN make breathtaking hand-held bouquets for your event!
