ADORNING YOUR EVENT

We look forward to growing and selecting flowers to accent your wedding day or special event. Our flowers are special to us, and sharing their beauty with you adds to the glory of growing them. Please view our wedding link on our website to learn more about the flowers we grow, our farm philosophy, to see photos of previous special event decor, and read testimonials about our flowers.

DIY Bulk Flower prices vary based on flower choices, design, and season.

All Old Friends Farm arrangements are made with a creative seasonal approach. Color preference and flower likes and dislikes are regarded, but we will not copy magazine images.

Each arrangement is its own art form.

Please Note: During our growing season, we arrange primarily with seasonal flowers from our Certified Organic farm. For orders that are outside of our growing season, or for additional flowers we do not grow, we purchase from other local growers and a floral wholesaler, which may mean they are not Organically grown. Fortunately, due to a growing demand for alternatively grown flowers, there often are more options, and we try our best to purchase from those farms.

A $100 non-refundable deposit is needed to save the date. This $100 is applied to your payment. Your total (less your deposit) is due two weeks following your event date. After 30 days, interest is charged on any late payments. Please contact us before sending a deposit so we can assure that your date is available.

DESIGN WORKSHOPS

Our Designing Workshops offer a fun and a comprehensive creative exploration of DIY wedding flower possibilities. Please email for workshop calendar. The experience of adorning your event with flowers can be a marvelous exploration into the beautiful world of flowers and creativity.
